

Smiles to strangers

Trent Dockery

Be extra kind to everybody for everyone is fighting some type of battle. You may save someone's life and never know just from smiling at them. Today for my random acts of kindness I made a effort to smile at everybody even total strangers. A man in New York City committed suicide by jumping of a bridge, they later searched his house and found a suicide note. It read, I will not kill myself if one stranger smiles at me today. I found this very sad and disturbing if only one stranger smiled at him he would be here today. A smile is such a easy way too to pass happiness through each other so why not just take the time too smile? I also am working on one other random act of kindness by being kind to everybody even strangers for you never know what troubles or challenges people are facing. I am making effort to be extra kind to everybody because of that. You may save someone's life and never know just from a simple smile or compliment. I will always try to be nice or kind to any stranger or anybody that I know. I hope that everyone else will start doing the same it would really make a difference. Who knows how many people you have helped just from a simple smile. Thank you Ms. Robusto, Ms.Devnew, and Mr.Merrit for being such wonderful English teachers. Thank you for all the neat things you have taught me this year. I look forward to using these skills for the rest of my life.
